

Martha Rolls Collins

moxarolls@mac.com

805.469.6712

College and Graduate Schools

UC, Santa Barbara, Law & Society (Interdepartmental Study of Sociology, Philosophy, and Political Science), 1972-77

Chinese Medical School, Emperor's College of Oriental Medicine, 1997 to 1999

Santa Barbara College of Oriental Medicine 1999-2000

Masters Degree of Chinese Medicine, 2000

Santa Barbara Graduate Institute, Somatic Psychology Doctorate Program, 2007 to present.

Further Professional Education

Massage Therapist Certification and Licensure, Santa Barbara School of Massage, 1995

Bodywork for the Childbearing Year, Somatic Learning Associates, Advanced Carole Osborne-Sheets, Advanced Certification 1996

Infant Massage Teacher Certification (Vilmala Schneider)

International Association of Infant Massage, Certification 1996

Certifications of Study of Classical Chinese Medical Theory with Jeffrey Yuen 1997 to present

Certificate of Study from Morinomiya Acupuncture School, Osaka, Japan, 2001

Certifications of Study, Pacific Institute of Aromatherapy, 2005 to present

California State Oriental Medical Association (CSOMA), Current Member

Master of Auricular Medicine, Auricular Medicine International 2008 to 2010, (Total 200 hours)

Certifications of Study, Continuum with Emilie Conrad, (300+ hours)

Diplomat Biosynthesis Therapist (2010), Biosynthesis Santa Barbara, 2004 to 2010, (Total 1,060 hours)

Professional Experience

Private body work practice 1995 - present

Infant massage instruction practice 1996- present

Community Memorial Hospital Birthing Class lecturer and Mommy & Me, Nursing Staff Programs, Ventura, California, 1996 - 2000

Speaker, Cal State Channel Islands in undergraduate and graduate psychology programs, 1999

Instructor, Santa Barbara College of Oriental Medicine, 2004-6

Active acupuncture, essential oil and body therapy practice, Lic AC# 9145, 2002-present

Community speaker, health fairs, Santa Barbara, California